

JOSIE HILL IS NOW A CORPSE

She Died Protesting Her Innocence of Murder.

THE MAN WITH A MASK

HE IT WAS WHO MURDERED CALLAHAN.

Some People Believe That, in the Event of Larkins Being Convicted, out of Nevada, they will Want Her Believed to Know About the Great Case.

(Special to The Herald.)

POCAHELLO, Idaho, Jan. 6.—Josie Hill, the woman who was shot by Sal Larkins, a gambler, at Idaho Falls, on Christmas night, died this morning at 8:30. She had shown remarkable vitality and up to within an hour of her death was thought to be improving. She was in good spirits on Sunday and she was last seen on Monday when she was being taken to the hospital. She was found by her attendant at 7:30 this morning, and she sank rapidly, until the end which came an hour later.

Considerable pressure was brought to bear on the woman in the hope of securing a confession, if possible, in regard to the shooting of Callahan near Salt Lake about three years ago, but she stoutly maintained her innocence, stating that the shooting was done by a man wearing a mask, and that she had no knowledge whatever as to who was the guilty party. It is thought by some, however, that Larkins was the man who shot her, and in the event of his being convicted of the murder of Josie Hill, he will make a confession. Larkins, who is confined in the jail at Pocatello, was notified of her death this afternoon, and broke down completely. His aged father is at the latter place and is prostrated with grief over his son's downfall. An inquest was held over the woman's remains this afternoon, the jury finding that she came to her death through a gun shot wound in the hands of Sal Larkins, who will be held without bail to appear before the grand jury in March.

THE TRANSVAAL

JAMESON'S FOLLOWERS MADE A STUBBORN FIGHT.

Great Excitement at Johannesburg.—Killed by Boers—Some Transvaalians—All Sorts of Rumors.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 6.—It is learned that after Wednesday's fight Dr. Jameson's command, originally about 500 men, moved southward, fighting all the way through the night and eventually reached Tlokoeng, six miles from Johannesburg. Thursday morning when the column was completely surrounded by 4,000 Boers. In spite of this Jameson's followers fought gallantly, but when all their cartridges were exhausted. In addition, they had not tasted food for twenty-four hours and were worn out. It is known that Jameson expected 2,000 Transvaalians to join him at Tlokoeng. The Dutch press is jubilant at this lowering of the British prestige and advocates the incorporation of Rhodesia with the Transvaal Republic.

To Shoot on Sight.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Delayed dispatches from Johannesburg arriving today show that on Tuesday last there was intense excitement there, people hurrying into the streets, and the British country. The committee men constituted themselves a provisional government for the town and announced that they would defend the town to the last. The committee men were armed with revolvers and shotguns. The provisional government was established in the Consolidated Gold Fields building, and three Maxim guns placed in advantageous positions about it. The new government then sent an ultimatum to the government of Transvaal, who refused to accept it. The committee men then held a conference at Pretoria the following day. Wednesday. The committee hesitated to go to war, but when the ultimatum was refused, they decided to fight. Dr. Jameson at that time was hourly expected at Johannesburg. Crowds surrounded the Consolidated Gold Fields building and the work of recruiting was in full swing. Numerous people left the town during the night in boats of fifty men. Later, the committee sent the following communication to Sir Hercules Robinson, governor of Cape Colony:

"We have the information that a large body of Boers have been committed immediately to attack Johannesburg and shoot on sight all who may be seen coming to the aid of the British. The affairs are so critical that we ask you to instruct the troops of the Cape to intervene to protect the lives of the citizens who have long awaited legal rights."

Killed by Boers.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The governor of Natal, Sir Walter Francis Reade-Hutchinson, telegraphs upon Boer authority that Sir Jameson's followers were killed and it was wounded. On the 5th night, it is added, three were killed and five wounded.

Unsatisfactory Interviews.

JOHANNESBURG, Jan. 6.—The German and Americans here, after unsatisfactory interviews with the government, have joined the National Union, which action was also taken by Africaners, Australians and the German association. The Transvaal are now united and a body of their armed and mounted forces is parading the town and Johannesburg. The Transvaal has replied to the request of Commander Marco to withdraw, but saying that he intended proceeding with his original plan.

All Sorts of Rumors.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—All sorts of rumors are in circulation, due to the delay in accurate news from Cape Colony. It is reported that the British government is hurrying troops from India to Cape Town, but there would seem to be no necessity for such step.

Bitterly Indignant.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—The following dispatch has been received from Johannesburg, January 5, at midnight: "The central committee of the National Union is bitterly indignant at the report, and they declare that the position in due policy to the imperial proclamation forbidding the British subjects to

THERE ARE TEN
IN THE FIELD

Federal Judgeship Fight Waxes Hot in Washington.

MASHALL, JUDD AND WEST

THEY ARE CONSIDERED TO BE THE LEADING CANDIDATES.

P. L. Williams and J. R. Leitcher are Pulling Hard for Marshall.—Burton's Chances Said to be First.—Hatch-Baskin Alleged to Have Admitted That the Age Limit Barred Him—West is Relying Largely Upon the "Influence" of Ex-Delegate Cannon.

(Special to The Herald.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The federal judgeship fight waxes hot. West, Judd, Marshall, Baskin, Merritt, Hall, Le Grand Young, Burton and McNairy. It is considered that Marshall, Judd and West are the leading candidates. One hundred and fifteen Utah lawyers have protested against Governor West's appointment, and sixty members of the bar have remonstrated against the appointment of Judd. West and McNairy, in one position. A Utah man here says only one lawyer in Salt Lake is earnestly supporting Judd.

Marshall is better endorsed by the Utah bar than any other candidate. Leitcher will tomorrow call on Senator Burton to arrange a hearing before the United States circuit court. John W. Burton, before leaving Washington, saw President Cleveland and said he had gone to live in Utah for his health's sake and had only been in the city for a few days. He was asked to appear in southern Illinois and asked what he would do if he were in the Transvaal.

He replied: "No, your name will be considered as an applicant."

The next day Burton left for Salt Lake. The president's assurance that Burton's name would be considered is not an indication that he will not be considered favorably. His chances are regarded as first rate.

Marshall's candidacy depends largely upon West's prospects. Although Mr. Hall has made formal application, he will not actively urge his candidacy until it is seen that Governor West is not in the race.

The Iowa delegation is working for Charles Saltsman. An attempt has been made by both Baskin and Baldwin to secure Senator Voorhees' influence, but they have failed. Senator Voorhees will take any part in the contest.

A Utah man here says Judd Baskin admits his chances are not bright, because of his having used the age limit.

The post office publishing President Woodruff's telegram to Governor West. A friend of one of the other candidates intimates tonight that Governor West's supporters probably Frank Cannon, the Finance Committee, and they had not seen the call and had nothing to say. Senator Cannon said that the call was not a surprise, as he had seen the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

THERE ARE TEN
IN THE FIELD

Federal Judgeship Fight Waxes Hot in Washington.

MASHALL, JUDD AND WEST

THEY ARE CONSIDERED TO BE THE LEADING CANDIDATES.

P. L. Williams and J. R. Leitcher are Pulling Hard for Marshall.—Burton's Chances Said to be First.—Hatch-Baskin Alleged to Have Admitted That the Age Limit Barred Him—West is Relying Largely Upon the "Influence" of Ex-Delegate Cannon.

(Special to The Herald.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The federal judgeship fight waxes hot. West, Judd, Marshall, Baskin, Merritt, Hall, Le Grand Young, Burton and McNairy. It is considered that Marshall, Judd and West are the leading candidates. One hundred and fifteen Utah lawyers have protested against Governor West's appointment, and sixty members of the bar have remonstrated against the appointment of Judd. West and McNairy, in one position. A Utah man here says only one lawyer in Salt Lake is earnestly supporting Judd.

Marshall is better endorsed by the Utah bar than any other candidate. Leitcher will tomorrow call on Senator Burton to arrange a hearing before the United States circuit court. John W. Burton, before leaving Washington, saw President Cleveland and said he had gone to live in Utah for his health's sake and had only been in the city for a few days. He was asked to appear in southern Illinois and asked what he would do if he were in the Transvaal.

He replied: "No, your name will be considered as an applicant."

The next day Burton left for Salt Lake. The president's assurance that Burton's name would be considered is not an indication that he will not be considered favorably. His chances are regarded as first rate.

Marshall's candidacy depends largely upon West's prospects. Although Mr. Hall has made formal application, he will not actively urge his candidacy until it is seen that Governor West is not in the race.

The Iowa delegation is working for Charles Saltsman. An attempt has been made by both Baskin and Baldwin to secure Senator Voorhees' influence, but they have failed. Senator Voorhees will take any part in the contest.

A Utah man here says Judd Baskin admits his chances are not bright, because of his having used the age limit.

The post office publishing President Woodruff's telegram to Governor West. A friend of one of the other candidates intimates tonight that Governor West's supporters probably Frank Cannon, the Finance Committee, and they had not seen the call and had nothing to say. Senator Cannon said that the call was not a surprise, as he had seen the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.

There were not many Republican Senators. Most of the Utah statesmen were recent converts to the call. Senator Morrill said that there was nothing to say about the call, that it spoke for itself.

Senator Teller said he was gratified that the president had decided upon a popular loan, and he had no doubt that the people would support it. He justified the course decided upon. Mr. Teller did not believe that the entire call had been made. He said that the first two bond issues of this administration.